

Congratulations . . .

Dear Guy,

I am writing to both inform and congratulate you, as you are to be inducted into the Combat Hall of Fame.

Your name was put forward in consideration of the work and commitment you have demonstrated to the development of martial arts. You have quite clearly shown that you are of outstanding character in your chosen field of expertise and have committed a great deal of your life and time to representing the martial arts world as an exemplary ambassador for all to see. For the above, you are being inducted in to the ranks of a very elite and select few, previous names include: Keinosuke Enoeda, Tatsuo Suzuki, General Choi Hong Hi, Yip Man, Hirokazu Kanazawa, etc . .

Following previous Hall of Fame functions, this year's event is set to be bigger and even better than those previously held. Where, more than 500 VIP guests will once again gather (at the prestigious Holte suite, Aston Villa Conference Centre in Birmingham) to witness another historical evening of celebration and recognition for the martial arts world's elite.

With a guest list that reads like a who's who of the Martial Arts World, your invitation ensures that you, will also be acknowledged and entered into the history books, for the important part you have played in your chosen art, both here in the U.K. and around the World!

The reasons for your being awarded are numerous, suffice to say that you have earned and deserve it. And this night is, in part, staged to allow everyone to share in your achievement and highlight the generally unrecognised great work that is carried out by the army of martial arts seniors around the world, each and every day.

The occasion is a formal affair requiring full evening dress (black tie and evening gown) with places being strictly limited and full details of the event are also enclosed.

Once again, congratulations and I look forward to seeing you at the Combat Hall of Fame Awards evening where you too will be officially honoured and recognised for your service to the World of Martial Arts.

Yours sincerely,

Paul.

Paul S. Clifton - Publisher.

PS – As with previous events, this year's "Combat Hall of Fame", will be filmed for broadcast.

PPS – The Full event details pack has been emailed to you so that you can complete them on line or by post (please advise soonest).